Community Service Committee Announces Two Spring Projects

The Community Services Committee has decided to participate in two outside projects this spring: (1) Friends of the Parks Earth Day Parks & Preserves Clean Up; and (2) the Court Appointed Special Advocates of Cook County (CASA) Put Your Foot Down 5k Run & Walk.

The Friends of the Parks Earth Day Parks & Preserves Clean Up will be on Saturday, April 19, 2008, from 9am until noon. We will meet up with other volunteers to clean and green Union Park, which is located at 1501 W. Randolph St and is just a short walk from the Ashland stop on the Green and Pink lines. T-Shirts will be given on a first come, first served basis. The Earth Day Captain will also supply you with some work gloves, garbage bags, and cleaning supplies. If possible, please bring your own work gloves, brooms, shovels, wheelbarrows, buckets, hoses, sunscreen, sunglasses, water bottle, and a rain poncho or jacket. Volunteers should dress in layers (i.e. T-shirt/sweater/jacket) with sturdy shoes. You may register online at <http://www.fotp.org/events/earthday.asp>. Please remember to list CALL as your organization.

The Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) of Cook County Put Your Foot Down 5K will be held on Thursday, May 29, 2008, at 6:30pm in Lincoln Park. The race starts and finishes north of Fullerton Avenue, near Diversey Harbor and circles around the zoo and through the park. We are looking for runners, walkers, and volunteers. The proceeds will benefit CASA, which is an organization that recruits, trains, and supervises volunteers to advocate for abused and neglected children in court. Pre-registration is $25 per person ($23 for CASA members). On-line registration ends May 27, 2008. Race Day registration is $30 per person and will be available from 5pm to 6:15pm at the race site (cash, check or credit card). You may register for the race or sign up to be a volunteer at: <http://www.casacookcounty.org/index.php?option=content&task=view&id=72&Itemid=146>.

Continuing Education Program on Buying Electronic Content Presented by CALL and AALL

Negotiating contracts to buy or license electronic content is quickly becoming one of an information professional's most important tasks. Yet even experienced e-content negotiators often fail to receive optimal value for their licensing expenditures because they have failed to learn how to play the game of negotiation. K. Matthew Dames, founder and principal of Seso Group, LLC, and executive editor of Copycense (www.copycense.com) will be the speaker at this continuing education program to be held on May 23, 2007. For additional information, please see the Calendar page.

CALL Awards Committee Requests Nominations

The CALL Awards Committee is asking for nominations for the 2007 Awards to be presented at the Annual General Meeting on Thursday, May 17:

The Agnes and Harvey Reid Award for Outstanding Contribution to Law Librarianship is presented annually for outstanding service to the chapter, or for contribution to law librarianship.

The Award for Outstanding Lifetime Achievement is awarded to a retiree or someone who had announced his/her retirement from a library or information science related position at a date falling within the Association year. S/he would have made an outstanding contribution to the Chicago law library community either through provision of outstanding levels of service to that community directly or through CALL.

The Award for Outstanding In-House Publication Award is presented to either an individual or a group who created in-house library materials that are either user- or staff-oriented, are relevant for law libraries and are outstanding in quality. Such materials may be either written or graphic in either print or non-print formats. These materials must have been created for use within a given library--materials that are offered systematically for sale in large numbers outside the library for which they were created are ineligible. Qualifying materials include, but are not limited to, bibliographies, guides, newsletters, software, staff manuals, staff training materials, etc. Unsuccessful entries in any year may be re-submitted for consideration in other years, and substantial revisions of previous award-winning entries may be submitted for consideration. Entries will be judged on quality, creativity and usefulness.

Please email, mail or fax nominations or submissions by April 20, 2007 to:

CALL Program on Advocacy and Technology at AALL

CALL is sponsoring the program, "Libraries, Advocacy, and Technology – Working with Decision Makers" presented by our Chapter VIP, Mike Ragen, on Monday, July 10, in St. Louis. He will address the unprecedented challenge for the library and information community today, of identifying and using technology to the benefit of our patrons.

To do this, we must convince decision makers of the resources needed for this task. In his view and from his experience, Ragen believes we need to "think globally and act locally" in the context of "advocacy is politics and politics is advocacy."

CALL's program is open to our own members, and to all attendees at AALL. It is on Monday, July 10th, at 10:15 a.m. in Majestic Ballroom H of the Renaissance Grand Hotel. The program is listed in the Meetings and Events Index of the AALL Program (but not under Programs), as "CALL presents ... Libraries, Advocacy, and Technology."
